

RESOLUTION NAMING THE ARCHIVE
IN THE COLLEGE OF ARCHITECTURE AND URBAN STUDIES
(COWGILL HALL ROOM 102B)
FOR LUCY AND OLIVIO FERRARI

WHEREAS, the late Olivio C. Ferrari, Alumni Distinguished Professor Emeritus of Architecture, had a long and celebrated career at Virginia Tech, beginning in 1965 until his death in 1994; and

WHEREAS, Lucy S. Ferrari, a long-time instructor in the Architecture program, along with her husband, Professor Ferrari, are beloved by generations of Architecture students whom they mentored and are widely respected for their unique and profound influence on the evolution of the Architecture Program from its infancy, for building the Architecture study abroad program, and for being instrumental in the acquisition of the facility and creation of the Virginia Tech Steger Center for International Scholarship (formerly the Center for European Studies and Architecture - CESA) at the Villa Maderni in Riva San Vitale, Switzerland; and

WHEREAS, Lucy Ferrari has been recognized as a member of the Ut Prosim Society for her philanthropy to the university to include support for the Lucy & Olivio Ferrari Annual Scholarship and the Ferrari Study Abroad Award, with considerable support provided to the Steger Center through the donation of the Ferrari Library books; and

WHEREAS, Lucy Ferrari has also made generous contributions to the College of Architecture and Urban Studies through endowments and traveling scholarships; and

WHEREAS, Lucy Ferrari wishes to honor the memory of her husband, Alumni Distinguished Professor Emeritus Olivio Ferrari; and

WHEREAS, Lucy Ferrari has been, and continues to be, a valued member of the university community;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that in acknowledgement of the devotion and generosity of Olivio and Lucy Ferrari and in recognition of past, recent, and future benefits to the university, the first floor room 102B of Cowgill Hall will be known as the Lucy and Olivio Ferrari Archive.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the above resolution naming the Lucy and Olivio Ferrari Archive be approved.
