REPORT OF THE GOVERNANCE AND ADMINISTRATION COMMITTEE

Rector Treacy called on Mr. Sanghani for the report of the Governance and Administration Committee.

Following Mr. Sanghani’s report, Rector Treacy commented on the importance of the self-assessment the board will conduct and the need to improve continuously.

PRESIDENT’S REPORT

A copy of President Sands’ remarks to the Board of Visitors is filed with the permanent minutes and marked Attachment Z.

President Sands called the board’s attention to one of the books distributed to them, Robot-Proof: Higher Education in the Age of Artificial Intelligence by Joseph Aoun, president of Northeastern University, which is one of the leading institutions for experiential learning. Experiential learning is a cornerstone of the VT-shaped learning environment we aspire to create, and President Sands looks forward to discussing the future with the board.

Rector Treacy then called attention to the other book provided to the board, The Extremes of Virginia by August Wallmeyer. This book is the centerpiece of an initiative that Virginia Tech leads in collaboration with the University of Virginia, UVA-Wise, Virginia State University, and a few others focusing on the revitalization of rural Virginia. The book points out the extremes of urban and rural Virginia and the gaps in between. The initiative seeks to ensure that rural Virginia is heard and understood, and the issues facing rural Virginia are elevated in an effort to reduce the gaps.
