2022-23 Promotion, Tenure, and Continued Appointment Program

ACADEMIC, RESEARCH, AND STUDENT AFFAIRS COMMITTEE AND FINANCE AND RESOURCE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

April 13, 2023

Traditionally, increases for faculty promoted in the spring are effective at the beginning of the academic year (or in the case of calendar-year faculty, at the beginning of the fiscal year). Consistent with the 2022-23 faculty compensation plan, salary adjustments are proposed at this time for teaching and research faculty who have been promoted in rank during the 2022-23 academic year. In addition to the rank promotions within the faculty categories noted below, faculty may be promoted to ranks within other faculty categories, as appropriate (for example, an Instructor may be promoted to a rank within the Professor of Practice or Collegiate Faculty categories).

There are three tenure-track faculty ranks beginning with Assistant Professor. Promotion to a higher rank and appointment with tenure may be granted to faculty members on a regular faculty appointment who have demonstrated outstanding accomplishments in an appropriate combination of learning, discovery, and engagement. The following raises are recommended for promotions to:

Professor	$7,000
Associate Professor	5,000
Assistant Professor	3,000

There are four non-tenure-track clinical faculty ranks beginning with Clinical Instructor. Those clinical faculty members with outstanding performance may be considered for promotion in rank. The following raises are recommended for promotions to:

Clinical Professor	$7,000
Clinical Associate Professor	5,000
Clinical Assistant Professor	3,000

There are three non-tenure-track collegiate professor ranks, beginning with Collegiate Assistant Professor. Those collegiate faculty members with a record of significant scholarly and/or professional achievement may be considered for promotion in rank. The following raises are recommended for promotions to:

Collegiate Professor	$7,000
Collegiate Associate Professor	5,000
Collegiate Assistant Professor	3,000

There are three non-tenure-track professor of practice faculty ranks. Those professor of practice faculty members with outstanding performance may be considered for promotion in rank. The following raises are recommended for promotions to:

Professor of Practice	$7,000
Associate Professor of Practice	5,000
Assistant Professor of Practice	3,000

There are three ranks for faculty on the instructor track: Instructor, Advanced Instructor, and Senior Instructor. Those faculty members with outstanding performance may be considered for promotion in rank. The following raises are recommended for promotions to:

Senior Instructor	$5,000
Advanced Instructor	3,000

There are three ranks of extension faculty beginning with Associate Extension Agent. Criteria for promotion in rank for extension faculty include educational preparation, performance, and professionalism. The following raises are recommended for promotions to:

Senior Extension Agent	$5,000
Extension Agent	3,000

Virginia Tech Carilion School of Medicine faculty members are of two types: faculty employed by the university or faculty employed by affiliate entities (in most cases Carilion Clinic). At all times, regardless of employer, faculty members providing instruction, academic support, or performing academic duties or roles as a Virginia Tech Carilion School of Medicine faculty member are governed by Virginia Tech's policies and procedures.

In the Virginia Tech Carilion School of Medicine, tenure-to-title is granted at the discretion of the school without any right to, interest in, or expectation of any compensation or guarantee for compensation or future employment and is granted only in the Virginia Tech Carilion School of Medicine to individuals who are not employed by Virginia Tech. Tenure-to-title is recognition of a faculty member's significant accomplishments in teaching, clinical care (if relevant), scholarship, and service to the school.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the following faculty are recommended for promotion and/or tenure or continued appointment in accordance with the faculty compensation plan.
